B F#/B G#m E F#
and to help you try to fall asleep at night
E F# E F# B
knowing that im here by your side girl

This isn't the best tab but I guess it works. But when they play this song they play it in C# so if you want you can play those they sound pretty good these chords are just easier to play and I think they sound really good. If you have any questions just email me my email is christianfrancelesquivel@gmail.com id be glad to answer any questions you have cause I figured it out by ear and the rhythms a little weird sometimes.
