Heathers (Ireland)

This is a pretty fun song. I didn't write out everything but it's pretty easy to figure what goes where. I know the chords aren't what the heathers play but it sounds pretty to me!

Capo on 3rd fret!
Standard Tuning!

Intro " G " Cadd9 " D - D

VERSE:

G Cadd9 D
If I was to tell you a story, would you keep it to yourself and not tell anybody else?

G Cadd9 D
Like you've done before.

G Cadd9 D
If I was to pass you on a secret would you lock it up and keep it in a room full of keys

G Cadd9 D
So it wouldn't get lost?

OTHER PART OF THE VERSE:

e	---	3----	---	3----	---	3----	---	3----
B	---	3----	---	3----	---	3----	---	3----
D	---	0----	---	0----	---	0----	---	0----
A	---	3----	---	2----	---	x----	---	x----
E	---	0----	---	0----	---	3----	---	2----

Walking...down.....Road.....day

Well, I was walking down the road one day when I spied a building that had fallen to decay.

Underneath all the rocks and rubble and memories, were hundreds and billions of stories.

So I crawled inside and I gathered them up and I read what they said like anybody would
