

When The Morning Comes
Hell or Highwater

When The Morning Comes
Standard Tuning (Capo on 3rd Fret)

A
5 Am

G D
We slowly lose the moon as it begins again

A
Clocking in

G D
I d give anything to do more than just survive in this

A
Breathe it in

G D
The cold, crisp morning air has now become your friend

A
Tell me this

G D
Have you ever felt like dying from the lack of it?

Dm F G
On and on with the rising sun

A
Iâ€™ve been living too long this way

Every night itâ€™s another mistake

Cadd9 G D
But I ll be fine when the morning comes

A
And I m standing at a cross road every day

But I m always a little too late

Cadd9 G D
But I ll be fine when the morning comes

A
When the morning coâ€™s|

A
5 p.m.

G D
The faces of my family bring me back again

A
Hold it in

G D
The truth inside keeps crushing like a heart attack

A

Let them know

G D

That life keeps getting better as the days go on

A

Over load

G D

Like a ticking time bomb waiting for the world to blow

Dm F G

On and on with the setting sun

A

Iâ€™ve been living too long this way

Every night itâ€™s another mistake

Cadd9 G D

But I ll be fine when the morning comes

A

And I m standing at a cross road every day

But I m always a little too late

Cadd9 G D

But I ll be fine when the morning comes

F

When the morning comes

G A G

I run away one last time

F G

Forget yesterday

A G

Today is mine

G D

O mine

F G A

On and on with the rising sun

A

Iâ€™ve been living too long this way

Every night itâ€™s another mistake

Cadd9 G D

But I ll be fine when the morning comes

A

And I m standing at a cross road every day

But I m always a little too late

Cadd9 G D

But I ll be fine when the morning comes

Fâ€|Gâ€|.A

When the morning comes

Hope this helps,
Navid