C G Dm C
Dm
You re the one I would pick out in a million
                                                    C
                                                            G
You re the one I would wish for as the friend of my life, life, life
Dm
If the whole world decided for a colour
Dm
Would pixels be any different in you, you, you
Bm
Brave and smart against the rules
You smile upon the fools
I follow where you go
            D Em D
I want you to know
Don t stop being crazy
             Em D
Wherever you go
                    C D
 D
Don t stop being crazy
        \mathbf{Em}
It s a lie
       D
It s a lie
        G
It s a lie we could not learn to fly
Oh no
Don t stop being crazy
When you walk you walk higher than the others
When you talk you talk merciless the bothering truth, truth, truth
Everybody seems remote-controlled nowadays

Only you have a frequency far beyond their ways, ways, ways

\mathbf{Bm}
                             C
Still and strong you walk alone
Don t wonder where they re gone
I ll follow where you go
         C
           D Em D
I want you to know
                   C
Don t stop being crazy
            Em D
Wherever you go
 D
Don t stop being crazy
       Em
It s a lie
        D
