someone s waving

C

someone s counting

C G

someone s leaving

C

there s fifty dollars on this pony

G

chase him down these tracks

C

well won t nobody take my business

G

i ll teach you how to come back

D C G

i saw one hundred miles of steel over wood and let her go

D C G

i filled my pockets up with coal black with mud and let her go i ll throw my hat off when i beat you find it when you re gone

there s straw and cotton around the station

i ll make myself a new one i held a silver dollar tight inside my fist and let you go i ve counted all the things i ve lost that point to this and let you go

C

the whistle s sounding

C

you are leaving

C

i am counting
