someone s waving
someone s counting someone s leaving
there s fifty dollars on this pony chase him down these tracks well won t nobody take my business ill teach you how to come back i saw one hundred miles of steel over wood and let her go i filled my pockets up with coal black with mud and let her go ill throw my hat off when i beat you find it when you re gone there s straw and cotton around the station i ll make myself a new one i held a silver dollar tight inside my fist and let you go i ve counted all the things i ve lost that point to this and let you go
the whistle s sounding you are leaving
i am counting
