

The Rabbit Song
Hem

Idle (The Rabbit Song) (MessÃ©)

E A E A
broken moon in the sky
E A E A
enough to pull up our eyes E A E A
from the ground where we hide E A E A
from the ground where we hide

E A E A
gonna waste some time with you and let this world go E A E
keep my heart idle
E A
gonna waste my time with you and let this love go B A E
a broken heart, idle

restless stars through the trees enough to fall to our knees make no sound so no one sees
make no sound so no one sees

gonna waste some time with you and let this world go
keep my heart idle
gonna waste my time with you and let this love go a restless heart, idle
