Oh I like you so very much so much in fact I gotta wake you up
Itâ€™s not that I have words to speak
I just wanna see you looking at me

D E

In a way, that states

A

In an hour when the sun comes up
Weâ€™re gonna put on our shoes weâ€™re gonna shake the dust
Open the door with your brand new key
We wonâ€™t be afraid of being sweet

to ourselves

E

Or anybody! anybody else!

Oh I miss you so very much so much in fact i gotta call you up
Itâ€™s not that I have news to bring
I just wanna make your telephone ring

D E

So it shows and you know

A

In a week when I fly back home
Weâ€™re gonna jump in bed and be all alone
youâ€™ll make biscuits and Iâ€™ll make tea
Weâ€™ll curl up close and then fall asleep

To the soundâ€¦ of no one else no else around

C#m Bm

And if Ive learned anything at all
In this short life of mine
If you hear that joy has come to town

C#m Bm E

Track it down, take a picture and tape it to your eyes

Bridge Fill x4

Oh I love you so very much so much in fact I m gonna switch it up
I m gonna take this room that I built for fun
And burn down the walls in front of everyone

D E

So they see, you and me

Dancing in our sleepy clothes
With two big smiles and a bowl of hope!
That weâ€™ll drink down like ginger tea

The heat will help us forget everything

E

That you and I, that you and I have seen

C#m Bm

And if Ive learned anything at all
In this short life of mine
If you hear that joy has come to town

C#m Bm E

Track it down, take a picture and tape it to your eyes
