

Tides

Hey Marseilles

I noticed that none of the songs from Hey Marseilles s newest album, Lines We Trace had lyrics or chords up. This is one of my favorites of the CD, so I figured I give it a try. I m not completely sure about some of the chords during the instrumental parts, but i should be just about right. Enjoy!

(Instrumental Intro)

C G D
C G D

C G
Go back where we started when the sun was angled right
Am G Em
Men youâ€™d see on TV screens were me in the same light
C G D
You were my reminder in this colder corner state
Am G Em
Of the brightness others aim for well outside the gray

(Instrumental)

C G D
C G D

C G D
The ground weâ€™re on keeps shifting but our steps still stay in time
Am G Em
For all the ways Iâ€™ve missed my aim I know loving you was right
C G D
Now I hear your whisper in this colder corner room
Am G Em
Thereâ€™s nothing easy in this moment and nothing more to you

G Em
All along weâ€™ve known the way these conversations end
Am C
You canâ€™t deny the shore its tide or sermons there are men
G Em
Itâ€™s just as well we tell ourselves thereâ€™s not so much to lose
Am C
But I would trade ten thousand days for one more hour with you

Em	A	C	F#m	F#(Maj)
Em	Am	C	F#m	F#(Maj)

G Em
We push and pull and give our all to never know for sure

Am C
I try to see the way I bleed as proof enough for me

G Em
Is the truth the thing cash your rings upon quiet afternoons

Am C
We take it home we make our own and throw out what we donâ€™t use

G Em
All along weâ€™ve known the way these conversations end
Am C
You canâ€™t deny the shore its tide or sermons there are men
G Em
Itâ€™s just as well we tell ourselves thereâ€™s not so much to lose
Am C
But I would trade ten thousand days for one more hour with you
