

Black Heart
Hey Rosetta!

This is not the correct way to play this song, but these are some easy chords to play along with and sing it. Sounds best if you strum a back-and-forth pattern that sounds much like the song, Enjoy.

Am Em D A

Am Em
you bright sun

D A

you darkest dirt

Am Em
hardest paradox

D A
i ever learned

Am Em
you re tireless

D A

and i tire quick

Am Em

itâ€™s the easy death of reason

D A
within my chest

you brightest sun
you darkest dirt
hardest crier i ever heard you cry out your orders you cry out your pain
and every letter s followed like its sacrosanct

i m at the mercy
of an idiot tyrant king i jump high! talk loud! and listen? i m always listening!
cause he built his throne from my bones and skin

Em D A

i love, i hate, i hate to live this way

Em D A
a dog, a slave, we do what our deity dictates

D
i just want

G someone to lean on

Em
i just want someone

G
to lean on me.

well theres the barebones chords, timing is not including here but i m sure you can it out, as well as repeats if you know the song. Great song, great band. thx
