G            D            Em                    C
You had demons to kill within you screaming
G            D                    Em                    C
With a gun loaded with guilt you opened their eyes
C                    D            Bm                    C
Love preys the living and praises the dead
C                    D            Bm                    C
In the heart of our hearts by death we were wed

Em                    C                    D            G
D
Bleed well the soul you're about to sell for passion deranged
Em                    C                    D
Kiss and tell, baby we're bleeding well
Em                    C                    D            G
D
Bleed well the heart you're about to fail for reasons insane
Em                    C                    D
Kill and tell, baby we're bleeding well?
Em
?In hell

G            D                    Em                    C
?No love lost under her will , I heard you weeping
G            D                    Em                    C
And on those words a church was built to keep the pain in
C                    D            Bm                    C
If death is the answer to love's mysteries
C                    D            Bm                    C
Then bleed on my darling to the sound of a dream
