

Blue Dress

History of Painters

Great song from History of Painters. They definitely deserve more attention!

Intro (fingerpicking)

G - Em - C - G

G - Em - C - D - G (x2)

Verse

G Em C G
She was standing in the clearing, her dress down to her knees

G Em C D G
With the daisies all around her, that swayed like Heaven's trees

G Em C G
The breeze hit like a whisper, the sun shed light on her face

G Em C D G
And that's when my heart told me, I would never forget this place

G - Em - C - G

G - Em - C - D - G (x2)

G Em C G
I was sitting on the hillside, as I watched my girl in blue

G Em C D G
Her figure like a portrait that someone perfect drew

G Em C G
Well I broke free from my rapture as she began to sing

G Em C D G
And swaying with the daisies, she moved just like a dream

Chorus:

B Em C G
So Dance my little darling, oh won t you dance for me

G Em C D G
Letâ€™s take this day together, as far as we can see

G - Em - C - G

G - Em - C - D - G

Verse

G Em C G
I keep on walking backwards, on all these one way streets

G Em C D G
and past these picket fences and charming well kept trees

G Em C G
Well I look over my shoulder, my girl in blue is still there

G Em C D G
Just clinging to the daisies and to these hopes and prayers

Chorus:

B Em C G
So dance my little darling, oh won t you dance for me

G Em C D G
Letâ€™s take this day together, as far as we can see

B Em C G
Dance my little darling, oh won t you dance for me

G Em C D G
Letâ€™s take this day together, as far as we can see

G Em C D G
Oh, letâ€™s take this day together, as far as we can see
