Hoffmaestro & Chraa

By: Daniel Jansson

[Verses]

Em C G Bm Em
I am a highwayman, on the road again
Em C G Bm Em
Me and my guitar, am a rambling band

C
Looking in the wrong, standing in the blow
Em
Carrying on alone cause Iâ€™ll never gonna go my way

Look up to the sky, cities flying by
Em
I donâ€™t wanna lie cause Iâ€™m pretty sure Iâ€™m gonna die one day

Em G Bm Em
So I say the road leads back to thee
 C Bm Em
It always leads back to thee

G Bm C D Em
How can I show my love so you will open your arms to me

So please wonâ€™t you tell me
Where the road will end
Got me a bottle
As my only friend

Standing in the rain, dealing with the pain
Everythingâ€™s the same and it doesnâ€™t really matter what I say
Picking up the phone, come to take you home
You will say no doubts, the reality of today

So I say the road leads back to thee
It always leads back to thee
Please wonâ€™t you understand that without you by my side
Thereâ€™s no meaning

So will you ever love me again, only time will tell

Iâ€™m in a hurry, cause theyâ€™re waiting down in hell

And no matter what I say say or do
The road lead back to youâ€|
