E

Well I used to pray to Jesus but I done backslid

F# G#m

Carrying the burdens of a preacher s kid

: E

Drinking at the pulpit and healing them lame

F# G#m

Daddy was a-riding on the old death train

E B

I had me a woman but she took my kid

F# G#n

When I gambled all our money on a moonshine still

Now I drink my whiskey from a beat up flask

F# G#m

This train done departed and it s goin fast

E B E B

Oh the wheels, they spin, they re faster than a speeding

F#
Airplane on a sunny day

And I can t break free cause I can t believe it s me

E B E B

So I ll take your bets, I ll try me walking down

F#

A narrow line with a life like mine

E B E B G#m

And you ll never see any boy as brave as me

Е

Yeah I hope that this old railroad delivers me

I m still the talk of this town, I m still the roll of their dice  $% \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) +$

F# G#m

I found me a lover in a whorehouse wife

E B

She never knew her mama or the money I ve known

F# G#m

Don t ever make a judgement if you ain t been shown
ЕВ
You never walked in my shoes, you never understood  F#  G#m
Why I was escaping anyway that I could B
Nobody knows I m gonna ride these rails  F#  G#m
Til the dark comes over this prison cell
E B E B
Oh the wheels, they spin, they re faster than a speeding F#
Airplane on a sunny day
E B E B G#m
And I can t break free cause I can t believe it s me
E B E B So I ll take your bets, I ll try me walking down F#
A narrow line with a life like mine
E B E B G#m
And you ll never see any boy as brave as me
Yeah I hope that this old railroad delivers me
