

Without You
Holly Williams

G#m E B F# x 2

G#m E B F#
I m packing up to sing my songs, all these towns blend into one,
G#m E B F#
I m somewhere in Madrid.

G#m E B F#
I got here on crowded trains with old guitars and a famous name,
G#m E B F# G#m E B F#
Running like a kid, I m running like a kid.

G#m E B F#
I carry round this old backpack full of CD s and Kerouac,
G#m E B F#
Living on the road.

G#m E B F#
I left my heart on the coast of Wales with the boy I met at The Last Hotel
G#m E B F#
But I had to let him go.

G#m E B F#
And that s when I was searching, I m not searching anymore
G#m E B F#
And that s when I was learning about the things worth living for
G#m E B F# E F# (- STOP)
Before I was open, before I knew I couldn t live a day
G#m E B F#

Without you
G#m E B F#
Without you

G#m E B F#
So I moved out west where the starlets play on the boulevards of West LA
G#m E B F#
And I tried to make a name.
G#m E B F#
But it never felt like home to me so I drove three days back to Tennessee
G#m E B F#
In a slow and steady rain.

G#m E B F#
And that s when I was searching, I m not searching anymore
G#m E B F#
And that s when I was learning about the things worth living for
G#m E B F# E F# (- STOP)
Before I was open, before I knew I couldn t live a day
G#m E B F#

Without you

G#m E B F#

Without you

G#m E B F#

Without you in the morning, to love me another day

G#m E B F#

Without you in the evening, when the colors start to fade

G#m E B F#

Without you on the plane ride to hold my hand and pray

G#m E B F#

Without you standing here when you could ve walked away

G#m E B F#

And now I m not searching, I m not searching anymore

G#m E B F#

And now I m still learning about the things worth living for

G#m E B F# E F# (- STOP)

I am here, I am open, and now I know I couldn t live a day

G#m E B F#

Without you

G#m E B F#

Without you

G#m E B F#

I m packing up to sing my songs, all these towns blend into one
