

Without You

Bm G D A x 2

Bm G D A
I m packing up to sing my songs, all these towns blend into one,
Bm G D A
I m somewhere in Madrid.

Bm G D A
I got here on crowded trains with old guitars and a famous name,
Bm G D A Bm G D A
Running like a kid, I m running like a kid.

Bm G D A
I carry round this old backpack full of CD s and Kerouac,
Bm G D A
Living on the road.

Bm G D A
I left my heart on the coast of Wales with the boy I met at The Last Hotel
Bm G D A
But I had to let him go.

Bm G D A
And that s when I was searching, I m not searching anymore
Bm G D A
And that s when I was learning about the things worth living for
Bm G D A G A (- STOP)
Before I was open, before I knew I couldn t live a day

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A
So I moved out west where the starlets play on the boulevards of West LA
Bm G D A
And I tried to make a name.

Bm G D A
But it never felt like home to me so I drove three days back to Tennessee
Bm G D A
In a slow and steady rain.

Bm G D A
And that s when I was searching, I m not searching anymore
Bm G D A
And that s when I was learning about the things worth living for
Bm G D A G A (- STOP)
Before I was open, before I knew I couldn t live a day

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A

Without you in the morning, to love me another day

Bm G D A

Without you in the evening, when the colors start to fade

Bm G D A

Without you on the plane ride to hold my hand and pray

Bm G D A

Without you standing here when you could ve walked away

Bm G D A

And now I m not searching, I m not searching anymore

Bm G D A

And now I m still learning about the things worth living for

Bm G D A G A (- STOP)

I am here, I am open, and now I know I couldn t live a day

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A

Without you

Bm G D A

I m packing up to sing my songs, all these towns blend into one
