Bbm Fm F# G#

imagine this bubble burst

Bbm Fm F# G#

sitting inside as the walls collapse

imagine the look on your face

Bbm Fm F# F# G# G#

G#
the moment you realize that itâ€™s not death itâ€™s the opposite

Bbm Fm

youâ€™re leaving a paper trail

F# G#
wherever you go itâ€™s in some file

Bbm Fm

you sleep in the waiting room

F# G#

but they got surveillance too

Bbm Fm

you kneel on these hard wood pews

F# G#

somebodyâ€™s watching over you

Bbm Fm

youâ€™re life is a neat little pile

F# (G#)

remember thereâ€™s someone at your side

F# G# F# G#

so try hard to see all the benefits

F# G# F# G#

and try not to leave while your heart still beats

Bbm Fm F# G# (2x)

Bbm Fm

and isnâ€™t it comforting

F# G#

to know what your pilot thinks

Bbm Fm

to know that your house still stands

F# G#

to open your mouth and sing

Bbm Fm
to hear you pick up the phone
F# G#
to know youâ€™re still there when i put it down
Bbm Fm F#
to know that the world outside is cruel and is beautiful at the same time

F# G#
and a dozen voices sing
F# G#
in my drunken head again
F# G#
and theyâ€™re drowned out by noise
F# G#
theyâ€™re making building skyscrapers
F# G#
theyâ€™re making building skyscrapers
F# G#
theyâ€™re making building skyscrapers
Bbm Fm F# G# (till end)
