

Pitching Far Too High
Hope And Social

These were worked out from Cotton Wool and Knotted Wood so they may be different from the April version but I don't know. The lyrics were taken from their website...
Pitching Far Too High (Cotton Wool and Knotted Wood)

F
All that I love now
Iâ€™m pitching far too high Gm
I cannot behold. F

F
Gilted angelâ€™s robe
The guilted pierced soul Gm
I cannot behold. F

Bb C F
And the heavens roll
Bb C F
And the trumpets blow
Bb C Dm
And the sun outside burns
Bb C F F C F F C F F C Dm C
F
This uncertain soul

F
And all my learning stops
Whilst trying to join these dots Gm
That pin-prick the night F

F
The sun streams its life through the glass
Scriptures and sermons elapse (suddenly) Gm
Iâ€™m with you. F

F
Iâ€™m old enough now to decide (all that I know now)
To leap out and loosen these ties (pitching far too high) F

Gm

Oh something is grounding me

F

And it's something I like

Bb                    C                    F

And the heavens roll

Bb                    C                    F

And the trumpets blow

Bb                    C                    Dm

And the sun outside burns

Bb                    C                    F                    F C F                    F C F                    F C Dm C

F

This uncertain soul

Bb                    C                    F

And the heavens roll

Bb                    C                    F

And the trumpets blow

Bb                    C                    Dm

And the sun outside burns

Bb                    C                    F                    F C F                    F C F                    F C Dm C
