to play the 2nd guitar parts and I will TAB then out when I have a guitar handy. But for now here is the chords. They are probably 80% accurate. I was working this up to play acousticly with my band. Like I said this is from memory and all comments are welcome at cops_eat_donuts@hotmail.com.

how to play it exactly from the 15 minutes I spent learning this song last night. Its a start anyways, enjoy!
