

Like Lavender Horse Feathers

This is a beautiful song by Horse Feathers. You can find it here:

This is my first tab, hope you like it! Leave a comment if you have any critique or tips.

With the C chord there are some variations on the fourth string and in the bridge on the first string. This makes me a little unsure about the chords in the bridge, but it sounds alright.

Capo 2
Standard tuning

The wall breaks on the phone if at all, if you call.

C Am Em C

A hole from which to see your head,

Am Em

if words are dead.

C

Some things always stay the same.

Am Em C

How you looked wet from all the rain.

Am Em F

Brige:

Am G Am F Am G

Like lavender the smell of your hair,

F C G

silly errs postponing your despair.

Am F C G

And I ll wait, I ll wait.

F C

Take a ticket to my own fate.

G Am

May - be I m too late.

F C G

And this wall breaks on the phone it at all, if you call.

C Am Em C

A hole from which to see your head,

Am Em

if words are dead.

C

Some things always stay the same.

Am Em C

How you looked wet from all the rain.

Am Em C

Some things always stay the same.

Am Em C
