

End Of Our Days
Howie Day

Here is a wonderful song by Howie Day. It is actually played on a piano but why bother =).

Tuning: Standard

Intro: F, A, F

A E
Here, where they can't find us
F#m E
I dare them to call me out
Or tell you
A E
We met here on purpose
F#m E
I bet they can't wait to wake us up

Bm E
It's all a little bit strange
Bm E
I know it's a little bit strange

A E
make a point and ignore them
F#m E
come on let's wait this out they'll find out
A E
we never stop turning
F#m
and sometimes it's tough
E
to change direction

Bm E
I know it's a little bit strange
Bm E
It's all a little bit strange

D
At the end of a day
E D E

I m gonna say what I mean

Bm A E

It s slipping all away, away

Bm A

At the end of our days

F A

We ll escape

F A

We ll escape

(the rest just follows the same chords as before, listen and you will see)

I know it s a little bit strange

It s all a little bit strange

At the end of a day

Well I m gonna say what I mean

Well I m

At the end of a day

Well I m gonna say what I mean

Slipping all away

It s slipping all away

It s slipping all away, now

At the end of our days

We ll escape

We ll escape

Oh, there s no escape

We ll escape
