

Miles

Hudson Taylor

Hey! This is miles from HudsonTaylors new EP.

The EP isn't out yet, or wasn't out yet when I submitted this, if you read this much later, so these lyrics are based on a live version of the song Harry performed on blogTV. I only have a bad quality recording of that, there are probably a bunch of mistakes - sorry.

The chords don't fit a hundred percent either. Sounds great, huh? Have fun!

Capo 3

Bbm F#

It's looking like the stars will fall for you

Bbm F#

Given that the sea is pardoned

Bbm F#

I can change your mind, your doubt for you
