

Wanted

Hunter Hayes

Hey guys, I love this song with all my heart and there aren't tabs anywhere on this song at all. I really need suggestions where I should take it from here. I'm not even sure if the capo is in the right spot, just sounded good to me. I've never written a tab before but I've read many and it doesn't seem that hard but oh god it's hard. This may be completely wrong. But I can't play bar chords so that's out of the question, just like G D C A Am Bm Em E Cadd9 Em7.. like anything pretty much without a bar. ): I really want to learn this song so I can play it for my boyfriend. It's the most beautiful song ever. Hunter Hayes needs to become more famous. I love him. (:

PLEASE email me if you can figure out the rest or if you think some of it is wrong or anything. PLEASE email me.
