verse
C#m   F#m/C#
I remember the time so well
B5   E/B
looking back you could never tell
A   C#m B5 A
what you meant when you said   to   me

A                    F#m/C#       B5  B (just hammer on that last chord then pull off back to b5)
this is how it was going       to be

C#m                  F#m/C#
in your apartment up in the back
B5                   E/B
i was peaking through a window crack
A                    C#m     B5  A looking out at a straight fall back
A                    F#m/C#  B5    B
you looked over at me       and said

chorus

E/B                           A
tonight im going to be like a shooting star
E/B                           A
you would not believe i would go this far
         C#m    B5    A
but i know what  that means
      C#m   B5    A
i know what that means

*post chorus interlude
C#m for A measure

verse

C#m                  F#m/C#
out of anger or out of spite B5               E/B
clinging on to me every night
A                    C#m  B5  A with your face in your hands you were
A              F#m/C#    B5    B
like a flame with nothing  to   burn

C#m                  F#m/C#
every time i would turn away
B5               E/B
every time i would go astray
A                    C#m  B5  A
every time try to get off.  the hook
 A                   F#m/C#  B5  B
you would give me that same    old look

chorus
EE/B                          A
tonight im going to be like a shooting star

you would not believe i would go this far
          C#m    B5    A
but i know what  that means
       C#m  B5    A
i know what that means

*solo goes here ( isn t really much of one on the cd, but live he  goes crazy with the whammy
and super distorted fuzz* then clicks back to clean for the next verse. HAVE FUN WITH IT !!!
final verse
C#m                             F#m/C#
there are things now that i have lost
B5                    E/B
i have payed up for every cost
A                C#m    B5 A
i admit that i had   to  go
                   F#m/C#    B5   B
now its over you see      and so

*final chorus
lyrics change slightly

E/B                             A
tonight im going to be like a shooting star
E/B                               A
you would not believe i would go this far
          C#m    B5    A
you know what  that means
          C#m  B5    A
you know what that means
