F#   C#
I think we ll never change
Bbm   G#
and our hearts will always separate.
Forget about you
I ll forget about you.
The things we never say
Are better often left alone.
Forget about you
I ll forget about this time.

But it s the same old situation
We made it through this far.
We watched the rockets kiss the sky.
I saw the flames burn out in your eyes.

Nothing that I do
Will ever be enough for you
Whatever I do, whatever I do.
Take me as I am
I ll never be the other man.
Forget about you
I ll forget about this time.

So won t you save this conversation
And find a better time?
Don t you ever understand
That if it hurts I ll do whatever I can?

And if it s set in motion
I ll watch it all pass by.
And leave the rest unspoken
I ll never change my mind.

Leave it unspoken, leave it unspoken,
Leave it unspoken, leave it unspoken now. (x4)

So just let me go
I won t change my mind.
I d rather be lonely
Than be by your side.
and nothing you say
Could save us this time.
I d rather be lonely.
