Eb

Bb

I think we ll never change

Gm

F

and our hearts will always separate.

Forget about you

I ll forget about you.

The things we never say

Are better often left alone.

Forget about you

I ll forget about this time.

But it s the same old situation

We made it through this far.

We watched the rockets kiss the sky.

I saw the flames burn out in your eyes.

Nothing that I do

Will ever be enough for you

Whatever I do, whatever I do.

Take me as I am

I ll never be the other man.

Forget about you

I ll forget about this time.

So won t you save this conversation

And find a better time?

Don t you ever understand

That if it hurts I ll do whatever I can?

And if it s set in motion

I ll watch it all pass by.

And leave the rest unspoken

I ll never change my mind.

Leave it unspoken, leave it unspoken,

Leave it unspoken, leave it unspoken now. (x4)

So just let me go

I won t change my mind.

I d rather be lonely

Than be by your side.

and nothing you say

Could save us this time.

I d rather be lonely.
