E

I just sit and watch our kingdom burn

I went walking in the woods tonight trees looked wicked by candlelight

I heard them whispering your name

Far away I saw the city lights the dreams of mankind burning bright

It was so beautiful

Morning came and took my fear away

I wondered if I'd ever learn

But how will we explain the mistakes we made when my fear will surely return

I went walking on my own

Bright eyed spirits guided me home

I went walking in the woods today
