

Well Done Acoustic
Hyland

This is from their new album called Finding our Way and it seemed that this song was quite personal to Jon when he wrote it, as he talks about his dad (you can search the video of him talking about it on YouTube.)

In the video Jon plays it acoustically and adds hammer-ons and pull-offs in between the chords and uses capo 2 (I prefer to capo 1)

This is the ACOUSTIC ver. It will sound different from the ORIGINAL soundtrack ver. This is NOT the TABS for the ELECTRIC guitar.

Actual Video + how he hammer-ons/pull-offs: <http://youtu.be/Z0L5ZMu3TWc>
