Verse I
=======

C
Time has moved so fast

```
             F         F/G        C
```
And now there does not seem to be any

```
  F                 F/G                C
```
And once it felt that there was more than plenty

```
  F                 F/G               Am
```
I do believe that something somewhere sent me

```
   Ammaj7 Am7    D
```
To you, a-stray

```
      F                           F/G                C     F  F/G
```
And the bold raging flame of your heart is making me stay

Verse II
========

```
    C           F              F/G        C
```
And I admit that I have spent some time in con-fusion

```
      F                 F/G              C
Not knowing what is or is not ill-usion

F                 F/G            Am        Ammaj7
Riddled with my-self and de-struction

   Am7    D
A-stray

         F                        F/G              C       F  F/G
And the bold raging flame of your heart is making me stay

C       F  F/G
```

Verse III
========

```
   C                 F              F/G          C
In flux we move we crawl across the sky like the weather

   F                 F/G               C
To think that you once thought that I was clever

    F             F/G           Am     Ammaj7
But I was do or die not now or never

   Am7    D
A-stray

         F                        F/G              C       F  F/G
Still the bold raging flame of your heart is making me stay

```

I hope I ve done it justice!
