

Playwright Fate
I Blame Coco

Acoustic guitar tabs

I blame coco - Playwright fate

VERSE

Cm
You may point with the crooked cane
G#
You conspire on my broken brain
Cm G#
And playwright fate will have his way
Fm
We re all actors in this play
G
We re all passengers on his train
Cm G#
And playwright fate don t make me stay
Cm G#
And soon enough the brakes won t take the weight
Fm
That is depending, and it s the strain on my left arm takes
G
I m just hoping for a happy ending

CHORUS

D#
So long, sir
Bb
You re in a land where you don t belong
Cm
Just keep kissing through the kissing song
G#
You re in a land where you don t belong

VERSE

Cm
So, so long friends
G# Cm
So long family the letters were sent
G#
I m gonna die here beautifully

Fm

Now the housecat s on his seventh life

G

He said his goodbyes to his beautiful wife

Cm

G#

He said he s going to a land where mice grow on trees

Cm

G#

He said he s going to a place where beasts like us roam free

Fm

He said come with me

G

He said come with me

CHORUS

D#

We re gonna die here gracefully

Bd

We re in a land where we don t belong

Cm

Just keep kissing through the kissing song

G#

We re in a land where we don t belong

D#

You see there s clearly something wrong

Bb

Just keep kissing through the kissing song

Cm

We re in a land where we don t belong

G#

We re in a land where we don t belong

VERSE

Bb

Get out of this place

Gm

Inhabitants of the children with the cheap cocaine

Cm

G#

And the playwright fate will have his way

Cm

Cause we are as brittle as biscuits

D#

Sarcastic, the English are bright

CHORUS

Bb

We re in a land where we don t belong

Cm

Just keep kissing through the kissing song

G#

We re in a land where we don t belong

D#

You see there s clearly something wrong

Bb

Just keep kissing through the kissing song

Cm

We re in a land where we don t belong

G#

We re in a land where we don t belong