Margarita " written by Harvey Andrews
Chorded by guyontheend@comcast.net

Verse 1:

G D/F# Em
They're playing our song, Margarita.
C D
Dance it this last time with me.
G D/F# Em
It won't be long, Margarita "
C D
soon I'll be overseas.
G Gaug
Let me know that you'll care
C Cm
when I've gone over there.
G D/F#
They're playing our song, Margarita.
C G
Dance it this last time with me.

Verse 2 (same):

Kiss me again, Margarita.
Give me a memory of you.
They say in France, Margarita,
one more push, we'll be through.
Yes, I'll write, but where from?
All they'll say will be "The Somme."
Kiss me again, Margarita.
Give me a memory of you.

Chorus:

Em C
It's a new world, Margarita,
D G
that we'll build when it's through.
Em C
In our new world, Margarita,
A7 D
we'll be wed, me and you.

Verse 3:

My old great aunt Margarita

(sheâ€™d been blind thirty years)
would tell us of young Margarita,
of her man and her tears.
She would say, â€œHe was tall,
thatâ€™s his picture on the wall.â€•
My old great aunt Margarita,
sheâ€™d been blind thirty years,

verse 4:

and she would ask, â€œIs he smiling?â€•
I would stare at the frame,
but the sun was there shining
through her window again.
Where the sun always shone
he had faded and gone.
When she would ask, â€œIs he smiling?â€•
I would say, â€œHeâ€™s the sameâ€•

Chorus:

Em C
Itâ€™s a new world, Margarita,
D G
that weâ€™ll build when itâ€™s through.
Em C
In our new world, Margarita,
A7 D
weâ€™ll be wed, me and you.

To verse 1, repeat last two lines of it.
