I m not sure if that s played on a bass or some kind of keyboard.

Em

I remember setting out just to see what I could see Streetcars rolling by and airplanes flying high they all meant nothing to me
No one ever looked my way or knew that I was there
I kept walking and the rain kept raining until all the streets were bare

Ooh ooh, feeling fine mama

Em D
Painted ladies and a bottle of wine mama

Ooh ooh, feeling good mama

Em D
They took my money like I knew they would

C G D
La la la la la, la la

La la la la la

Repeat intro

Em

City lights were shining on me through my window pane
I kept thinking ^?bout the day when I d be home again
Rocking chairs and summer fairs and swimming in the sea
I kept drinking, sinking, till there was nothing left of me

Ooh ooh, feeling fine mama
Painted ladies and a bottle of wine mama
Ooh ooh, feeling good mama
They took my money like I knew they would
La la la la la, la la

Repeat intro

Em to fade out

I couldn t figure out the stuff at the end. Sorry! The song would be kind of boring to play without it, but oh well.
