The wind is from the east,
C F Dm
Blowing hard across the plains,
C Am Dm G C
I m high and lonesome waiting for a change.

(Chorus)

C F
Just give me one broke horse with a good fittin saddle,
C
That s easy on your back,
F
One good woman who makes up the difference,
C
For everything I lack,
Am G
One last chance to sell my calves,
C F
Before the prices go to hell again,
C Am Dm G C
Clear blue skies... eighteen inches of rain.

C
The coffee s kinda bitter,
F Dm
is the water or the pot?
C
Until I get to town,
Dm G
I ll make do with what I got,
