Red Velvet Ian Tyson

Red Velvet by Ian Tyson
F G C Bb
Four months ago in April, on a day-coach she came down
F C F C
And the dusty autumn winds begin to blow	n1
	Bb from town
I should'a known I couldn't hold her livin' out so far F C F C	Trom cown
And the nights to come are long and slow to go
This one inglies to come are rong and show to go
F G C Bb
Well now she's up and left me and went walkin' down the l	line
F C F C
And the dusty autumn winds begin to blow
F G C Bb
All dressed up in red velvet & her high-heeled shoes so fine
F C F
And the nights to come are long and slow to go
Eb Bb C F
Well if I'd only known, before we kissed, that
Bb C C7 F F7
You can't keep red velvet on a poor dirt farm like this
Bb C F Eb
So now she's gone and left me & went walkin' down the lin	ne
Bb F Bb F
And the dusty autumn winds begin to blow
Bb C F Eb	7
Well I'll sit & count the evening stars, as they walk aroung Bb F Bb F	nd
Bb F Bb F When the dusty autumn winds begin to blow
Bb C F Eb
Then I'll call my dog & take the truck & drive on into town	n
Bb F Bb F
â€~Cause the nights to come are long & slow to go
Bb C F Eb
Well Iâ \in TMll sit & count the evening stars, as they walk around	nd
Bb F Bb F
And the dusty autumn winds begin to blow
Bb C F Eb Then I'll call my dog & take the truck & drive on into town	n
Then fac it carr my dog a cake the truck a drive on filto town	LI.
