

Tattooed Tears
Ice Cream Shout

C

heaven knows you re miserable now

G

but it s the path you chose

C

and now you pay with years

G

in pelican bay (here we come for sure)

Em

so you shanked a few

Am

Em

and you ve gone a bit numb to it refrain:

G

C

but on the day the doors open up for you

Em

G

you believe there will be

C

a life waiting there for you

C

in the fields of Salinas

Câ€|etc

when you shout something louder than bombs it s just the chance you take but your tattooed tears done in the yard

they won t dry today

you ve lost your love for good to those damn Surenos

but on the day the doors open up for you

you believe there will be

a life waiting there for you

in the fields of Salinas

there is no love

there is no peace with you but there is an understanding here there no chance

there is no way without it and this will change everything you know
