What I Should Have Learned In Study Hall

Intro: A D F#m D

A E
Well I waited till you packed your bags,
F#m
Took a picture and hoped it would last,
D
With you all the way through,
E A
All the nights you and I couldnâ€™t have.
E
Now I know that it shouldnâ€™t be this hard,
F#m
But youâ€™ve moved yourself so damn far.
D
And I wonâ€™t suffice,
E
When thereâ€™s two thousand miles to drive.

F#m E
Iâ€™m thinking it over,
D E
Iâ€™m thinking of all the days and nights
D
We would spend laughing.
E
Are you happy...

A
In Colorado, with the mountains,
E
Did you like them?
F#m
Did you find what youâ€™re looking for?
E D E
Because Iâ€™m still searching for the life we were living before...

A E
You seem so young and so full of life,
F#m
While Iâ€™m getting older with each hopeless night.

D

Youâ€™re still always on my mind,

E

Are we through this time?

A

Well angels should ask you,

E

What youâ€™re doing with me.

F#m

Iâ€™m an apple who slipped too far from the tree.

D

But Iâ€™m burning to rot away silently,

E

As you grow into something more promising.

F#m

And now weâ€™ve got these god damn words,

E

That mean nothing when I canâ€™t see your face,

D

Or have your body for touching.

And everything I eat,

E

It tastes like you,

So what are you trying to prove,

A

In Colorado, with the mountains,

E

Did you like them?

F#m

Did you find what youâ€™re looking for?

E

Because Iâ€™m still searching for the life we were living before.

E

And if I dropped everything and book a flight,

F#m

From into Denver, that night we would crash that night,

E

Cause the odds are against us,

D

So all bets are off,

E

Just know you meant more than I ever could want.

-{Play next Part with E}

Iâ€™m giving up . . .

(Just give me one more time...)

If just for one more night,

Then Iâ€™ll be happy to walk away.

You could put on that dress you know I love,

Taking your time zipping it up,

You always knew what I liked.

They'd base movies off our lives, but somehow they wouldn't suffice.

-{Play next Part with A}

(So just take your time)

You've got moves and abuse them,

(Live your life)

And I've got pictures to prove them,

(You're not that far away,

I'm sick of every word I wish you'd say)

I'm sure You're burning every note I ever sent,

So I'll find you,

A

In Colorado, with the mountains,

E

Did you like them?

F#m

Did you find what you're looking for?

E

Because I'm still searching for the life we were living before.

E

And if I dropped everything and book a flight,

F#m

From into Denver, that night we would crash that night,

E

Cause the odds are against us,

Just know you meant more than I ever could want.

Beautiful song, enjoy ;)
