

El Capitan
Idlewild

Tabbed by: acoustic-fish

Tuning: EADGBE (standard) one of the best songs on Warnings/Promises, there is only one tab for this on the and its not so good, so heres how i play it.

the tabs are not in the right strumming pattern or timing, so listen to the song. this just a guideline.

lyrics:

by the harbour, i harbour the strangest memories older than i could ever be, stranded in nostalgia so tonight i ll try harder, but it s hard to fix this spotlight on me in a cast that s taken places, i m not sure of where i want to be stand up, stand up, and stand out, i ll climb el capitan and jump off to cheers from the crowd stand up, stand up, and stand out, and i hope you take your camera to photograph my tears as they hit the ground no one even listens, the same way that no one ever laughs i m taking the car out of the snow i m wondering where the summer went to circled by secrets, i m hoping they dont include me at least i m in good company, because there s no one else around except me

stand up, stand up, and stand out, i ll climb el capitan just to watch the world slow down stand up, stand up, and stand out, and i hope you take your camera silence makes the loudest sound it seems far too easy to say the same thing i ll choose my own way to use my life up finally found a new way to say the same things in imaginary ways i ll use my life up you were looking at pictures in the distance hoping to see the future in your pictures of the distance hoping to see the future looking at pictures in the distance hoping to see the future through your pictures of the distance hoping to see the future
