JUNKIE FAITHFUL - IKE REILLY ASSASSINATION (Acoustic Version)

When it comes to the harmonica part, I haven't gotten around to tabbing it, but if you have a Chromatic harp in the key of C, you can figure out something that works pretty well starting off from 4b 4d 4b 4d 5b.

A D A
The minister has fleeced the congregation
A D A
The Junkie faithful want their money back
D A D A
There were rumors in the rectory that all they had was lost

C D A
I don't waiting till you find your man

A D A
Across town the rented storefront needing and broken
A D A
Shaking coffee hands were outside smoking
D A
On the sidewalks killing time
 D A
Between sleep and getting high

C D A
I don't mind waiting till you find your drugs

A D A
The sentence was his crime against his nation
A D A
The junkie faithful asks what have you done
A D A
I was called to be lucky not to be dumb
A D A
Don't want to be busy till my calling comes

C D A
I don't mind waiting till you find your man

C	D	A
I don t mind waiting till you find your drugs
C	D (one stroke)	A
I don t mind waiting till you find your God.

[THE END]
