

Around Again
Ilse DeLange

[Verse 1]

Dm Am
Not everything s gonna go your way
C Dm Am
Some days were only made for falling down
C Dm
We all dance around the ache
Am C Dm Am
But the strongest hearts will sometimes break into the ground

[Chorus]

G F
It s easy to forget what s true
C
Love will come around again
G F
And don t give up, don t give in
C Dm
Love will come around again
Am C
It always comes around again

[Verse 2]

Dm
When the second guessing starts
Am C Dm
People show you who they are, it hurts like hell
Am
Cause you knew them once so well
F C
And now it s sticks and stones that break your skin
Am C
Start a lonely war within, but honestly
Dm Am
That s sometimes how it s supposed to be

[Chorus]

G F
It s easy to forget what s true
C
Love will come around again
G F
And don t give up, don t give in

C Dm
Love will come around again
 Am C
It always comes around again
 C Dm
Love will come around again
 Am C
It always comes around again, again

[Bridge]

C Dm
Everybody knows the pain
 Am
Of something good fading away
C Dm
Letting go
 C
Yeah, we all, we all, we all know

[Chorus]

G F
It s easy to forget what s true
 C
Love will come around again
G F
And don t give up, don t give in
 C Dm
Love will come around again
G F
It s easy to forget what s true
 C
Love will come around again
G F
And don t give up, don t give in
 C
Love will come around again
 Am C
It always comes around again
 C
Love will come around again
 Am C
It always comes around again, again
