First comes the blessing of all that you ve dreamed

Am F
But then comes the curses of diamonds and rings

Am F
Only at first did it have its appeal

Am F
But now you can t tell the false from the real

Am F
Who can you trust? Who can you trust?

Am F
When everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold, gold

C Dm F
Everything, everything, everything you touch turns to gold, gold
