G

```
The Gambler
Impala Ray
[Intro]
F C G Am
[Verse 1]
he stumbled backwards through the door he smelled of gin and cold cold smoke his wife and kids feared nothing more this night his ship has left the shore
[Chorus]
no one else could feel his pain
            Αm
he lost the game once more again
the tide is coming in [Verse 2]
sweat ran down his furrowed face he shivered like an earthquake
once he was full of grace
                              Am
but the benjamins took his faith [Chorus]
no one else could feel his pain
            Αm
he lost the game once more again
            C
the tide is coming in C
he left his home as a man
now he needs a helping hand
           C
come back home like a man [Bridge]
```

Am

he didn t know how this could happen he didn t know a way out so he left them with a weapon and birds rose up through the clouds [Chorus] no one else could feel his pain Am he lost the game once more again C Am the tide is coming in C he left his home as a man Αm now he needs a helping hand C come back home like a man [Outro] C he left his home as a man now he needs a helping hand C come back home like a man