[Verse 1]

The time is right                   D                   Esus
 I'm gonna pack my bags                   G                   C
 And take that journey down the road                   D                   Esus                   G                   C
 Cause over the mountain I see the bright sun shining                   D                   Esus                   G                   C                   C
 And I want to live inside the glow                   D                   Esus                   G                   C                   G                   C

I wanna go to a place where I am nothing and everything                   Dm                   Esus                   G                   Esus
 That exists between here and nowhere                   Dm                   Esus                   G                   Esus
 I wanna go to a place where time has no consequences Oh yeah                   Dm                   Esus                   G                   Esus                   G                   Esus
 The sky opens to my prayers                   Dm                   Esus                   G                   Esus                   G                   Esus                   I wanna go to
