But we re better off for all that we let in

G G4 G
Lost friends and loved ones much too young
G G4 G
So much promises and work left undone
Am G
When all that guards us is a single center line
Am G/B G/C D/F# (G G4 G)
And the brutal crossing over when it s time

Am D (G G4 G)
(I don t know where it all begins)

The father son the holy warriors and the president

With glory days of put up dukes for all the world to see

Beaten in to submission in the name of the free

G G4 G
We re in an evolution I have heard it said
G G4 G
Everyone s so busy now but do we move ahead

Am G
The planets hurting and atoms splitting

And a sweater for your love you sit there knitting

----

(I don t know where it all begins)

Am D C
(And I don t know where it all will end)

C D (G G4 G)
See those crosses on the side of the road
C D Am
Tied with ribbons in the median
C D Em
They make me grateful I can go this mile
C D
Lay me down at night and wake me up again

G G4 G
Kat writes a poem and she sticks it on my truck
G G4 G
We don t believe in war and we don t believe in luck
Am G
The birds were calling to her what were they saying
Am G/B G/C D/F# (G G4 G)
As the gate blew open and the tops of the trees were swaying

G G4 G
I ve passed the cemetery walk my dog down there

I read the names in stone and say a silent prayer
Am G

When I get home you re cooking supper on the stove

And the greatest gift of life is to know love
