JONAS & EZEKIAL (Amy Ray)

[Actually in D; capo 2.]

[Each chord is one measure.]

chords as Am and C. The Rites of Passage songbook also shows them as Am and C. But it sounds like it s mostly Am; that s because the bass plays A most of the time, even under the C measures. On ACL, the chords were strummed so that the fourth and fifth notes of the Am and C measures were hammer-ons from 0 to 2 on the D string.]

[In other words: the verse is Am Am Am Am(4)>Am Am Am Am C C C C(9)>C C C C.]

I left my anger in a river running Highway 5
Am C
New Hampshire, Vermont, border by
Am C

Before I realized everywhere I stand
There have been tribal feet running wild as fire
Some past life sister of are my desire

C F E7 E7 Am Am Am Am
Whose angel are you anyway, anyway?

Now when I was young, my people taught me well
Give back what you take, or you ll go to hell
It s not the devil s land, you know it s not that kind
Every devil I meet becomes a friend of mine
Every devil I meet is an angel in disguise

Jonas and Ezekial, hear me now
Steady now, and don t come out
I m not ready for the dead to show its face
Whose angel are you anyway?

Am C Am C

A bullet in the head, now he s dead
A friend of a friend, someone said
He was an activist with a very short life
I think there s a lesson here, he died without a fight

In the war over land where the world began
Prophecy says it s where the world will end
But there s a tremor growing in our own backyard

Am C Am
Fear in our heads, fear in our hearts, prophets in the graveyards

Jonas and Ezekial, hear me now
Steady now, and don t come out
I m not ready for the dead to show its face
Whose turn is it anyway?

Jonas and Ezekial, hear me now
Steady now, I feel your ghost about
I m not ready for the dead to show its face
Whose angel are you anyway?
