[intro]
C Em/B Gm/Bb Asus Dm Dm7 F Gsus - G
[intro]

C Em/B Am(9) Am(9)/G
I tried my best to get over you
F F Gsus G
Kept my distance so I wouldn t have to show
C Em/B Am(9) Am(9)/G
That the things which I kept hidden by my casual smile
F F Gsus G
Were the things that I needed you to know
C Em7/B Am(9) Am(9)
You could have seen the acting on the stage
F F Gsus G
You might have read the writing on the page
Am G F C - Em/B
You could have noticed that a heart went breaking into two
Am Am/G F
But you never knew it was I was falling for

C Em/B Gm/Bb Asus Dm Dm7 F Gsus - G
you [intro chords]

Sometimes I still think that I could get to you
Then I laugh, think I could swim the seven seas
It seems when I am set to fly, there s a storm up in the sky
When I m set to sail, there isn t any breeze
You could have seen the acting on the stage

You might have read the writing on the page
You could have noticed that a heart went breaking into two
But you never knew that it was I was falling for you

[Guitar solo; same chords as a verse]

It s been some time now when I saw you in a photograph
Looking just the way you did so long ago
And I could almost see you throw your head back and start to laugh
In that gentle way you used to let me know

G Bm (?) Em G/B
Things were okay, and a hurting song is just a cliché

Am Am/G F F
And what s the use if they only always fade away

F F Gsus - G
Just like the sun, just like everyone but

C Em/B Am Am/G F Gsus - G Cmaj7.
you.
