YOU LEFT IT UP TO ME (Amy Ray)

[Each chord is half a measure.]
[A(9)=x07600, D(9)=xx0230, E/A=x02100.]

A(9) A(9) D(9) E A(9) A(9) D(9) E
[intro]

A(9) A(9) D(9) E
When I let you go, I cursed myself with empty hands
A(9) A(9) D(9) E
Strong enough to watch you walk, but not enough to understand it
A(9) A(9) D(9) E
With spiteful eyes you burn for my grace
A(9) A(9) D(9) E
I was trying to stand outside of this, you were trying to save face

E E D(9) D(9)
You can say that I don t care (I don t care)
E E D(9) D(9)
You can hope that we still have something left to
A E D(9) D(9)
share; But just between you, baby, and me
A E D(9) D(9)
Just between me, baby, and you
A(9) A(9) D(9) E
There s nothing there

I finally found someone I can hold
You ask me to defend myself, as if I shouldn t be so bold
Well, get that look off of your face
I don t have the time, (I don t have the time) and you don t have the place

To say that I don t care (I don t care)
And hope that we still have something left to share
But just between me, baby, and you
Just between you, baby, and me
There s nothing there

[Instrumental, same chords as one verse]

Baby, what are you gonna do?

I can't salvage any truth from you

Everybody else already knows

A(9)                    A(9)                    D(9)                    E                    A                    A

It hurts you to realize, so leave well enough, enough alone

You don't need my hands to help you understand

A                    A                    D                    D
You don't need to hear my voice (you have no choice)

So don't be throwing stones; the closer we get, the harder they come

A                    A                    D                    D
Now, even if you're feeling alone, don't come home

E                    E                    D                    D
Cause when it was up to you (when it was up to you)

E E                    D                    D
When it was up to you, you left it up to

A E/A D(9)                    E
me (me...)                    You left it up to

me, oh you left, oh you left it up to me

E E                    D(9)                    D(9)                    A(9) A(9) D E A.
When it was up to you, you left it up to me
