

Sort Of
Ingrid Michaelson

[Verse]

D Em F#m G
Baby, you ve got the sort of hands to rip me apart
D Em F#m G
And baby, you ve got the sort of face to start this old heart
D Em F#m G
But your eyes are warning me this early morning
D Em F#m G
That my love s too big for you my love
D Em F#m G
Baby, you ve got the sort of laugh that waters me
D Em F#m
G
And makes me grow tall and strong and proud and flattens me
D Em F#m G
I find you stunning, but you are running me down
D Em F#m G
My love s too big for you my love
D Em F#m G
My love s too big for you my love

[Chorus]

Em F#m G A
And if I was stronger then I would tell you no
Em D/F# G A
And if I was stronger then I will leave this show
Em F#m G A
And if I was stronger then I would up and go
Em D/F#
But here I am
G A
and here we go again

[Verse]

D Em F#m G
Baby, you ve got the sort of eyes that tell me tales
D Em F#m G
That your sort of mouth just will not say, the truth impales
D Em F#m G
That you don t need me, but you won t leave me
D Em F#m G
My love s too big for you my love
D Em F#m G
My love s too big for you my love

[Chorus]

Em F#m G A

And if I was stronger then I would tell you no

Em D/F# G A

And if I was stronger then I will leave this show

Em F#m G A

And if I was stronger then I would up and go

Em D/F#

But here I am

G A

and here we go again

[Bridge]

Em F#m G A Em

Tell me what to do, to take away the you

F#m G A

Take away the you, take away the you

[Chorus]

Em F#m G A

And if I was stronger then I would tell you no

Em D/F# G A

And if I was stronger then I will leave this show

Em F#m G A

And if I was stronger then I would up and go

Em D/F#

But here I am

G

and here we go again
