

Leveller

Inkubus Sukkubus

C                      G                      Am
He comes as a darkened knight Upon the raging storm

C                      G                      Am
And as an angel of love he reaps the harvest corn

F                      C                      Dm
He comes as a leveller to make one and all the same

F                      C                      Dm
His song on the western wind to deliver us from pain

F                      G
Take his hand

Em    Am
For only he ll lead you on to the promised land

F                      Em                      Am
He is the only true friend of the poor

F                      G                      Em                      Am
Can you not see that only he can ever set you free

F                      Em                      Am
He is the only true friend of the poor

C    G                      Am
And all the kings and the queens and the generals dread the gaze of his eyes

C    G                      Am
But to the sick and the cold and the starving he s a blessing in disguise

F                      C                      Dm
For his sweet kiss brings release and they shall suffer no more

F                      C                      Dm
So they don t fear when he comes a-knock-knock-knocking on the door
