(C to A# Riff through verses)

Falling asleep at the wheel again, baby
You re drifting over the line
You re hands are tight but you re losing grip quickly Fix me can you read the sign Thumbin your way to Vegas, dirty and dreaming of the other side Save your tears and laughter because it doesn t matter what you find

Everything that you do is wrong and you
Fell like you can barely survive
When those around you are crumpling downwards
Buried in the sunset alive
Thumbin your way to Vegas, dirty and screaming like you re back from hell
Save your dreams and occupations cause doesn t matter what you sell
