Acordesweb.com

Cold Morning In Minusinsk Isolation Years

Isolation Years - Cold Morning in Minusinsk Album : Inland Traveller (2003)

Tabbed by Marcus Hautz (endofallthings at gmx. de)

It s played with Capo on 3rd fret, so the notes are actually 3 steps higher. Greetings to Kille, you still alive buddy ?

Am Em Am Went to see him was travelling by rail Am F Am By dawn we saw the lights Am С \mathbf{Em} Am All these people were standing in line Am F Am I had to find out more Am F Dm What they were waiting for

 Am
 F

 In the morning
 C
 Em7

 When it s cold in the morning
 Am
 F

 Am
 F

 He tells a story
 C
 Em7
 Am

 That might stop me from yawning
 That might stop me from yawning

Am \mathbf{Em} Am The story ends where the singing begins Am F Am I saw you in the choir Am C Em Am The air was fresh but the lodges were cold Am F Am I recognised your face F Dm Am What brought you to this place

AmFIn the morningCEm7When she s cold in the morningAmF

He tells a story С Em7 Am That will stop her from yawning D Em We re not trying to make you stay D Em You can always go away Am Н7 But no matter what you say Am \mathbf{F} In the morning C Em7 When we re cold in the morning Am \mathbf{F} He tells a story C Em7 Am That will stop us from yawning